FLORiDA
card
more than a license

Gather your documents.
Go to a driver license office.
Get your new card.

Starting January 1, 2010, Requirements Will Change.

For renewing or getting a new Florida driver license or ID card, you now must bring specified documents to a driver license office. New document rules also apply if your name has legally changed.

You can speed through the process—
with our help—and these steps:

- Gather your documents.
- Go to a driver license office.
- Get your new card.

Be prepared, and you'll make one quick trip!

Renewing a license?
You can skip the trip.

Here's a one-time green light. You may renew a driver license once by Internet or mail between office visits. You do not have to visit an office if you are renewing or getting a replacement.

Note: skip-the-trip is for license renewals with no name change. For online renewal, go to www.GoRenew.com, and then your next renewal will be in an office, using the new required documentation.

JANUARY 1, 2010 NEW DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

Starting January 1, 2010, when you go to a driver license office, you must bring original documents that prove your 1 identity 2 social security number 3 residential address. The checklists here list some valid documents. For more document options and information, go to www.GatherGoGet.com. If you don't have Internet access, telephone (850) 617-3995.

1 Identification: U.S. Citizens (BRING ONE)

Bring one of the following original documents as proof of your identity:

- Certified U.S. birth certificate, including territories and District of Columbia
(A hospital birth certificate is not acceptable.)
- Valid U.S. passport
- Certificate of naturalization

CHECK THE BOXES AND REMEMBER WHAT TO BRING!

Legal Name Change (if applicable)

- Original or certified copy of all marriage certificates or court orders that show name change(s) (Uncertified photocopies are not valid).

Non-U.S. Citizens

Immigrants and non-immigrants supply the same proofs as do U.S. citizens for Social Security number (if issued) and residential address. Their required identification documents are different.

Immigrants: Identification

Bring one of the following:

- Alien registration receipt card (green card, Form I-551)
- I-551 stamp in passport or on I-94
- Immigration judge's order with applicant's A-number (granting asylum)
- I-797, with A-number indicating granting of asylum
- I-797 or another form from the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration with the applicant's A-number, stating approval of refugee status

Non-immigrants: Identification

An example follows. Some of these documents require other supporting documents. Before going to an office, read the full requirements at www.GatherGoGet.com or call (850) 617-3995.

1. Bring the following single document:

- Employment authorization card issued by the U.S. Department of Justice (form 1688B or I-766)

2. Or bring one of the following:

- Proof of non-immigrant classification from the U.S. Department of Justice (unexpired form I-94, with supporting attachments)
- I-571 travel document/refugee travel permit
- I-512 parole letter
- Immigration judge's order for cancellation of removal
